React JS

Open a Modal

To open a modal in react..

```
import { useState } from 'react';

const [mobileMenu, setMobileMenu] = useState(false);
const toggleMobileMenu = () => {
  setMobileMenu(!mobileMenu);

<button onClick={toggleMobileMenu}>Click</button>

{mobileMenu && (JSX CONTENT)};

To hide the Scrollbar when the Mobile Menu is open, we need to add an `active-modal` tag to the body element and add CSS `overflow: hidden;`. To prevent an error within React/Next JS we need to run the code only when the DOM Content is loaded. Therefore we use this code:

// HIDE SCROLL BAR WHEN MOBILE MENU IS OPEN

if (typeof window === 'object') {
  // Check if document is finally loaded

Montag: 18.45 – 20.00 Uhr „Büro-Mobil“

Sitzen ist das neue Rauchen. In „Büro-Mobil“ bringen wir Bewegung, in die vertrackte Situation, sorgen dafür das involvierte Muskulatur gelockert, Gelenke bewegt, Blockaden gelöst werden und bereiten die Zielregionen auf die folgende Kräftigung vor. Darum ist das Ziel dieser Trainingsstunde, ohne Hektik, bewusst und zielgerichtet, aktive Bewegungsstrukturen zu stärken und alltagstauglich zu wappnen. Durch intelligentes Training und besondere Anwendungen an den dafür verantwortlichen Faszien werden Ihre Haltung und Bewegung nachhaltig zum Positiven verändert. Schmerzen und Einschränkungen werden damit weitgehend dauerhaft verhindert. Somit handelt es sich bei diesem Kurs nicht nur um einen Kurs zur Kräftigung der Muskulatur, sondern auch zum Lösen von Verspannungen und Verklebungen der Faszien. Das richtige Rezept gegen das Sitzen.

// KIDS IN CAMBODIA - Experimental Documentary

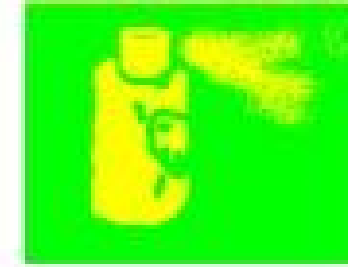

Length: 55:31 min | Location: Siem Reap, Cambodia | Year: 2019

A fascinating culture living next to tonle sap lake near Siem Reap

The people living in the floating villages are mostly fishermen, they live in floating houses which are regularly moved around according to water levels. The children visiting floating schools or don't go to school at all. Several communities of people are living next to the Tonle Sap lake. There are four main villages that are accessible from Siem Reap. It is a wired but beautiful atmosphere, almost continuously the engine noises from the fisher boats are running. The area around the floating village seems to be full of life and the people are very friendly and peaceful. Regardless if they are poor, it is possible to see smiling faces everywhere.

Cambodia's traditions and culture are largely determined by the religion of the people, where 95% practice Theravada Buddhism. Most Cambodians strive to avoid aggression and confrontation at all costs. Raised voices and

A corrupt political system ruled by prime minister Hun Sen

One of the biggest problems is corruption. It is more widespread than in almost any other Southeast Asian country and is blamed for the fact that foreign funds amounting to around 300 million U.S. dollars annually just disappear. For example the entrance fee to Angkor Wat is 35$ and thousand of people from all over the world visiting the temples every month. This money which reveals to the Cambodian society is handed to corrupt politicians and nobody really knows where the money goes.

This corrupt system is supported by the Prime Minister Hun Sen, which holds his power since 1985. He is responsible for the death of people who demonstrated about the miserable political system in their country. In July 2016 for example, the well-known government critic Kem Ley was shot dead in the capital Phnom Penh. Tens of thousands accompanied his coffin through the streets of the city, but anyone who openly suspects Hun Sen of being behind the crime will end up in prison for defamation. Kem Ley was not the only activist who get killed and the people in Cambodia know about this situation, so they keep quiet. This is a political power suppression like we saw in many other terrible systems in history.

The media in Cambodia is controlled by the government and spread propagates the oppression of the people. The government tries to keep the people small and silent, so that they are able to continue the corruption and nepotism. As you can hear in the interview, most people in Cambodia don't have a passport. The costs for getting a passport are around 150$, which is a monthly salary in Cambodia. There are a lot of question marks, but not really an answer.

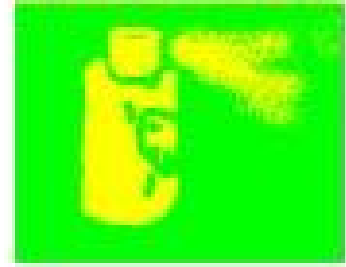

Here you can listen to an interview I made with a smart native person near the floating village. This interview was just possible after I turned of my camera. Luckily my recorder was still on, so I was able to record the whole interview. The voice is modified to don't risk any trouble.

Support the kids and their families shown in the documentary

In 2022 I will travel to Cambodia again to meet the kids in the documentary another time. If you like to support them, please get in contact. Every donation is highly appreciated and will be passed on in full to the children and there families on my next travel. Everybody who sends a donation will be named in the film credits after I got the approval. Furthermore everyone who participate, will get an exclusive documentation about the next contact with the kids.

It is possible to participate in the donation by sending a message using the contact form and stating your name, email address and the amount of your donation. Please also let me know if you'd like to be featured in the credits. Afterwards I will send you the account details with the exact purpose, so that your donation can be assigned. If you like to send a larger donation, then I can also provide some contacts to activists or human rights organizations.
